ACTIVITIES

F [redacted] advised in December, 1960, and January, 1961, that SAM GIANCANA, ANTHONY ACCARDO, JOHN DREW, MORRIS DALITZ, MURRY HUMPHREYS, and two unidentified individuals from Cleveland, Ohio, one of whom was probably MORRIS KLEINMAN, had recently negotiated a "contract" whereby GIANCANA and the Chicago group acquired an undisclosed number of points or shares in a three-way deal which was not clear to the informant, but which apparently involved the Riviera, Desert Inn, and Stardust Hotel Casinos in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Informant stated that the groundwork for these negotiations was laid a number of years ago by ANTHONY ACCARDO and PAUL DeLUCIA, also known as PAUL "THE WAITER" RICCA. RICCA is currently completing a three-year sentence at the Federal Penitentiary in Terre Haute, Indiana, for income tax evasion.

b7C Negotiations were further facilitated by the efforts of [redacted] [redacted] according to informant. Informant said that [redacted] GIANCANA, Et Al, [redacted] This $1,000.00 a month will actually be contributed by JOHN DREW from the latter's interest, which is $6,000.00 per month.

According to [redacted] the "kingpin" in the negotiations in Las Vegas was GIANCANA, assisted by ANTHONY ACCARDO and MURRY HUMPHREYS.

L The negotiations are not quite complete at this time. However, for all practical purposes, the contract is sealed, and the only part remaining will be the "picking up of loose ends." The informant clarified the latter by stating that it will be necessary now to obtain clearance from the Nevada Gaming Commission and other State of Nevada officials for individuals that GIANCANA, Et Al, plan to place as official holders of the points which have been obtained. [redacted] said the contributions of this group amount to approximately $36,000.00 per month.

b7D [redacted] DALITZ ranch, which is located approximately twenty miles from Gunlock, Utah. The area around the ranch is a remote area, and the ranch itself can be reached only by air or by a single dirt road leading from Gunlock to the ranch.

A modern airstrip has been constructed three miles from the ranch, and this can handle planes of considerable size. The ranch house and building have been modernized, and approximately twenty people can be accommodated here overnight. DALITZ has 3,000 acres at the present time [REDACTED]

He runs 400 head of beef cattle on the ranch, and raises his own feed for these and his other stock. He owns the cattle [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] and is a reputable, reliable individual. [REDACTED]

DALITZ was alone at the ranch for approximately one week prior to February 22, 1961. He drove from Las Vegas in a station wagon he owns, and he keeps an outfitted jeep at the farm for his use while he is there. He enjoys living in the open, and will take off for two or three days at a time, at which time he sleeps outside and travels by horseback or jeep. [REDACTED]

LEGITIMATE BUSINESS

Information has been reported previously that DALITZ has an interest in the Star Investment Company or the Star Development Company. This company is reportedly constructing a golf course in a housing project adjacent to Las Vegas. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

INFORMATION REGARDING GEORGE GORDON AND HIS ASSOCIATION WITH SUBJECT AND THE DESERT INN HOTEL

In early 1944, in connection with attempts to locate [REDACTED] aka - FUGITIVE, FBI No. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] aka - FUGITIVE, FBI No. [REDACTED] who were charged with robbing the First National Bank of Spar Mill, Spar Mill, New York, on February 8, 1953, the following information concerning GEORGE GORDON, a reported associate of the above two individuals was secured:

In approximately March of 1944, the records of Local Draft Board No. 50, City Hall, Shaker Heights, Ohio, reflected that GEORGE GORDON registered on October 16, 1940, Serial Number 740, Order Number 1386.

The file further reflected that GEORGE GORDON's parents, ISAAC GEIK, born in Dubna, Russia, and his mother, BESSIE LEIBOWITZ, were both deceased.

The file further reflected that GORDON reported for induction into the United States Army on February 29, 1944, at which time he was rejected for service in the armed forces because of a psychopathic personality. It was noted that the examining psychiatrist listed his reason for GORDON's rejection as GORDON's numerous arrests and lack of judgment.

In May of 1939, while endeavoring to locate LOUIS BUCHALTER, aka - FUGITIVE, [REDACTED] of the Cleveland, Ohio, Police Department furnished the following information to SA [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised that in addition to the Ohio Villa and the Thomas Clubs, owned and operated by MORRIS B. DALITZ, aka, and his associates, [REDACTED] reported that the New Arrow Club [REDACTED]

A review of the Cleveland files reflect that in approximately April of 1945, GEORGE GORDON was reported to be a member of the Bayonet Club which was operated by the Joe Davis (alias of DALITZ) and Morris Kleinman Syndicate. (No source was given for this information)

In July 23, 1945, MORRIS DANLEY DALITZ called at the Cleveland Office and furnished the following information to SAs [REDACTED]

DALITZ advised that he enlisted in the United States Army on June 29, 1942, and served until the middle of June, 1945, when he was released and placed on reserve duty as a First Lieutenant.

He advised that while in the Army he maintained a financial interest with four other individuals, namely, MORRIS KLEINMAN, LOUIS ROTHKOPF, aka, LOUIS BOEHY, LOUIS BOEHY; SAMUEL (SAMBO) TUCKER, and [REDACTED] in the operation of Suite 281, Hollenden Hotel, [REDACTED]. He stated he also maintained a financial interest in the Beverly Hills Country Club, Fort Thomas, Kentucky, and the Lookout House, Covington, Kentucky. He advised that THOMAS MC GINTY of Cleveland and [REDACTED] of Cincinnati also had a small financial interest in the Beverly Hills Country Club and SAMUEL (GAME BOY) MILLER was interested financially in the Lookout House.

DALITZ advised that while he was serving in the Army, MORRIS KLEINMAN was in charge and probably made arrangements to finance other gambling establishments located in Cleveland and elsewhere. DALITZ stated the names of these establishments were unknown to him, although he did recall that there was a gambling operation near Cleveland managed by GEORGE GORDON.

The latter gambling establishment at this time was believed to be the Pettibone Club which at this time was operated on a large scale in Lake County, Ohio, a short distance from Cleveland. According to press reports at this time, this club was reportedly renovated at an expense of over $50,000.00

DELITE advised that he, ALBERT, CHUCK POLAKI, KOTKOFF, and SAMUEL TUCKER shared equally in the profits and losses of any gambling establishment in which they had financial interest. He advised that there were a number of other limited partners in some of the operations, and that these individuals participated in a small way in the profits derived from commercialized gambling.

b7C
On June 10, 1930, [REDACTED] State Attorney General, visited the Vertebrale Clinic in Geneva, France.

As a result of the raid, GEORGE EDWARD, a well known racketeer, was convicted and fled the jurisdiction of the court. Subsequently, GEORGE GORDON returned to Chardon, Ohio, and surrendered himself and was sentenced to sixty days in the Geauga County Jail in March, 1931.

While GORDON was in the County Jail, the Cleveland Plain Dealer, a local newspaper, sent two reporters to Chardon, Ohio, to investigate the claims that GORDON was being pampered. The reporters claimed that GORDON was being permitted to leave the jail during the evening, and that his meals were being catered to him while there. He allegedly was permitted to make 372 long-distance telephone calls while confined, two of which were to the Desert Inn, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Following the Plain Dealer expose a special Grand Jury was convened, and Sheriff STEWART HARLAND was indicted on seventy-two counts, charging that he pampered GEORGE GORDON during GORDON's sixty-day confinement in the County Jail, Chardon, Ohio. On November 15, 1931, Sheriff HARLAND was found guilty on seventeen counts of pampering GORDON and was fined $565.00. Following the conviction, according to this paper, Sheriff HARLAND reportedly quit and left the State of Ohio.

On July 5, 1957, [REDACTED] Bureau of Special Investigations, Cleveland Police Department, advised SA [REDACTED] that GEORGE GORDON, who had recently been in Cleveland, Ohio, for a short stay, had taken over LOUIS ROTHKOPF's interests in Las Vegas. According to [REDACTED] GEORGE GORDON was now considered a "big shot" in the group of MOE DAVIS, MORRIS KLEINMAN, and is reported to travel extensively in the United States.

GEORGE GORDON is reportedly a representative of the so-called Cleveland Syndicate in the Newport, Kentucky area.

[REDACTED] GORDON is generally considered to be one of the Syndicate men for the Nevada and Florida boys.

[REDACTED] GORDON is known by informant to be a close associate of NOE DALITZ in the Nevada operation.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

Reference is made to your airtel of 2/14/61 which set out an analysis of investigative efforts regarding subject and an outline of your plans regarding contemplated action.

A review of material submitted by your office since the above date does not indicate the likelihood of a violation being developed within the Bureau's jurisdiction. You have noted that Dalitz

b7D [REDACTED]

It is interesting to note that Dalitz is in a precarious situation as a holder of a gambling license in view of his known association with Chicago hoodlums and the strong indication that he is a front for that element in Las Vegas. You pointed out that if brought before a grand jury, Dalitz, if he chose to admit fronting for a hoodlum interest, would immediately lose his license to operate in the gambling industry. Also, if he chose to take the Fifth Amendment due to possible self-incrimination, he could be suspended as a license holder because his right to have a license is based on good behavior; and a claim of self-incrimination would give the State Commission the right to suspend his license. Lastly, if Dalitz chose to lie, he could be committing perjury and could be prosecuted.

In view of the fact there is no evidence of Dalitz being involved in a matter within the Bureau's jurisdiction together with the fact he has not been of any particular value in furnishing information that could assist in other investigations, it is desired that you reconsider this matter.

Considerable information has been developed linking Dalitz with the Chicago hoodlum element. Chicago should advise Las Vegas as to what pertinent information in this category could be used to [REDACTED]

Las Vegas should consider [REDACTED]

Chicago and Las Vegas should give this matter very detailed consideration and advise Bureau as to your recommendations.

NOTE: Dalitz is one of 42 prime targets for early prosecution in the Criminal Intelligence Program. Las Vegas has been attempting to develop a Bureau violation involving Dalitz, but due to his acquiring considerable wealth in recent years he has established a very favorable reputation and conducts himself outwardly as a respectable businessman. "CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM, LAS VEGAS DIVISION".

It should be noted that LEXINGTON, columnist, <sup>NY</sup>
"New York Daily Mirror", on 6/24/61, in his column, "New York Confidential", set forth the following:

"More about Mobocracy: Herewith is the second 10 names as they appear in alphabetical order on Attorney General Bob Kennedy's hush hush list of "top echelon racketeers who have been designated as being of primary interest" in the President's Drive on Organized Crime. The first 10 were printed here last week. It will be noted that almost every name has already appeared in this space, though I am not in complete agreement with the evaluation, feeling that some who should be on the list aren't, whereas others who are, are not big enough to be in the first 40 or, like the first appearing below, are generally considered to be 'inactive.' However, I do not want to argue with the Attorney General, who has better info than I have. The names are: Morris Barney Dalitz, Las Vegas; Angelo DeCarlo,
